

CRASH COURSE KIDS #7.2 – THE DIRT ON DECOMPOSERS

Available at <https://youtu.be/uB61rfeeAsM> or just youtube/google “Crash Course Kids 7.2”

1. What is one thing you already know about decomposers?

Answer in the oval to the right! →→→→→

2. _____ is actually a good source of energy for lots of different living things, like _____, some _____, _____, and _____.

3. What is the definition of a decomposer?

a. All living things need energy to _____.

b. A _____ is a group of parts within a specific area that work together as a whole.

c. A food chain is a _____ that shows how _____ between living things.

i. During Sabrina’s investigation, what is the three-part basic food chain mentioned?

ii. What do the decomposers do in this food chain?

iii. True or False (circle one): Decomposers don’t just put energy back into the food chain, they also keep waste from piling up in an ecosystem.

What’s the most interesting fact you learned from this Crash Course Kids video?

What’s one question you have about this topic after watching the video?