Informative Writing Notes

What IS Informative Writing?

- Informative writing → nonfiction writing written with the _____

  _____

- Includes _____ of writing

- Informative writing has specific features

- There are 4 types of _____

Types of Informative Writing

- _____ → writing tends to be shorter

  - Examples:

- _____ → allows readers to scan through material and pick what they want to read

  - Examples:

- _____ → advocates a point of view

  - Examples:

- _____ → informative, persuasive, and error-free piece of text as a job or service

  - Examples:

- _____ → provides step-by-step guide for the user

  - Examples:

Specific Features of Informative Writings

- _____ → serves as tools for analysis and planning

- _____ → visually attractive to the reader

- _____ → includes the main format components (intro, body, conclusion)

- _____ → citing sources used (reference/work cited page)

Informative Writing Notes

Informative Essays

- _____ → used to teach and explain information in an objective way
    - Examples:
- _____ → provides a detailed description of your subject (a person, place, thing, or event) using vivid imagery
- _____ → aims to persuade readers to have an opinion or take a side using facts
    - Examples:
- _____ → tells a story and are often the most personally type of essay
    - Examples:

REFLECTION

- What is informative writing, in your own words? _____

  _____

  _____

- What are the 5 types of informative writings?
    - ○   ○
    - ○   ○
    - ○

- What are common features of informative writing? _____

  _____

  _____

- What are 4 styles of informative writing?
    - ○   ○
    - ○   ○