

Name: _____

Word Bank:

blue

good

white

cotton

2.

Cumulus clouds are _____, puffy clouds that look like giant _____ balls in the sky. These clouds float along in the _____ sunny skies and mean _____ weather.

My illustration:

CUMULUS

Word Bank:

change

ice

high thin

3.

My illustration:

Cirrus clouds are made up of tiny chunks of _____. They are _____ wispy clouds that sit _____ up in the sky. When you see these clouds, it means the weather might _____ soon.

 CIRRUS

Word Bank:

storm low black inside gray 4.

Stratus clouds sit _____ in the sky. They cover the sky like a _____ blanket often blocking out the sun. They are usually dark grey or _____. They warn us that rain or a _____ is coming! So if you see these clouds it's time to get _____ quick!

My illustration:

STRATUS

Word Bank:

storm apart dark temperature water 5.

Cumulonimbus clouds are _____ gray. These clouds signal to us that a _____ is coming so it's time to take cover. As they break _____, they let out buckets of _____ or snow depending on the _____.

Explain how clouds can help predict the weather?

CUMULONIMBUS

Directions: Write 3 facts you've learned about clouds. Then answer the question below.

6.

Fact 1

Fact 2

Fact 3

List the 4 forms of precipitation:

1.

3.

2.

4.

3 FACTS

