

MAYAN MAGIC

in the jungle ruins

COMMAS IN A SERIES

name: _____

Read the examples below and determine which of them uses commas correctly.

1. Which of the sentences below uses commas correctly? A) To prepare for the camping trip, I will pick up groceries, collect firewood, and pack supplies. B) To prepare for the camping trip, I will pick up groceries, collect firewood and pack supplies. C) To prepare, for the camping trip I will pick up groceries, collect firewood, and pack supplies. D) To prepare for the camping trip, I will pick up groceries collect firewood, and pack supplies.	6. Which of the sentences below uses commas correctly? A) An iguana, a parakeet and a praying mantis were the boy's eclectic pets. B) An iguana a parakeet, and a praying mantis were the boy's eclectic pets. C) An iguana, a parakeet, and a praying mantis were the boy's eclectic pets. D) An iguana, a parakeet, and a praying mantis, were the boy's eclectic pets.
2. Which of the sentences below uses commas correctly? A) I went, to the beach ate gelato, and enjoyed a picnic for dinner. B) I went to the beach ate gelato, and enjoyed a picnic for dinner. C) I went to the beach, ate gelato and enjoyed a picnic for dinner. D) I went to the beach, ate gelato, and enjoyed a picnic for dinner.	7. Which of the sentences below uses commas correctly? A) The soccer coach, a kind man, distributed balls, jerseys, and pylons to the soccer players. B) The soccer coach, a kind man, distributed balls jerseys and pylons to the soccer players. C) The soccer coach a kind man distributed balls, jerseys, and pylons to the soccer players. D) The soccer coach, a kind man, distributed balls, jerseys and pylons to the soccer players.
3. Which of the sentences below uses commas correctly? A) Before bed, I will need to do my homework, make my lunch for tomorrow and brush my teeth. B) Before bed, I will need to do my homework, make my lunch for tomorrow, and brush my teeth. C) Before bed, I will need to do my homework make my lunch for tomorrow, and brush my teeth. D) Before bed, I will need to do my homework make my lunch for tomorrow and brush my teeth.	8. Which of the sentences below uses commas correctly? A) Much to her father's surprise, Marissa didn't feel like eating spaghetti lasagna, or pizza for supper. B) Much to her father's surprise, Marissa didn't feel like eating spaghetti, lasagna, or pizza for supper. C) Much to her father's surprise, Marissa didn't feel like eating spaghetti, lasagna or pizza for supper. D) Much to her father's surprise, Marissa didn't feel like eating spaghetti lasagna or pizza for supper.
4. Which of the sentences below uses commas correctly? A) Please put the knives, forks, and spoons in their proper place, when you unload the dishwasher. B) Please put the knives forks, and spoons in their proper place when you unload the dishwasher. C) Please put the knives, forks, and spoons in their proper place when you unload the dishwasher. D) Please put the knives, forks, and spoons, in their proper place when you unload the dishwasher.	9. Which of the sentences below uses commas correctly? A) The competing students were either running around the track doing jumping jacks or preparing for the long jump. B) The competing students were either running around the track doing jumping jacks, or preparing for the long jump. C) The competing students were either running around the track, doing jumping jacks or preparing for the long jump. D) The competing students were either running around the track, doing jumping jacks, or preparing for the long jump.
5. Which of the sentences below uses commas correctly? A) The young boy witnessed the robbery, ran to his mother, and cried on the drive home. B) The young boy witnessed the robbery ran to his mother, and cried on the drive home. C) The young boy witnessed the robbery, ran to his mother and cried on the drive home. D) The young boy witnessed the robbery ran to his mother and cried on the drive home.	10. Which of the sentences below uses commas correctly? A) The taxi driver yelled out the window, waved his arms fanatically, and sped off. B) The taxi driver yelled out the window, waved his arms fanatically and sped off. C) The taxi driver yelled out the window waved his arms fanatically, and sped off. D) The taxi driver yelled out the window waved his arms fanatically and sped off.