

Complete the following after reading "Ending WWII"

- 1) What is the best choice for the purpose of the text? (Circle one letter)
 - a) Narrative text tells a story, usually personal, with a beginning, middle and end.
 - b) Descriptive text creates a picture with words, using vivid language to describe people, places, things, or events.
 - c) Expository text explains or informs, by presenting facts, definitions, or processes in a clear and concise way.
 - d) Procedural or instructional text explains how to do something through step-by-step explanations.
 - e) Argumentative or persuasive text tries to persuade the reader to agree with a particular point of view.

- 2) Where is the setting?

- 3) In your own words, what problem and solution is described?

- 4) The United States dropped an atomic bomb on Japan because it wanted...
 - a) Japan to keep fighting
 - b) revenge
 - c) Japan to surrender
 - d) to test the bomb
- 5) Complete this sentence: President Truman decided to use the atomic bomb _____ he knew it would kill innocent people.
 - a) because
 - b) although
 - c) especially
 - d) indeed

- 6) The purpose of Peace Memorial Park is to...
 - a) Make Americans feel bad about what they did.
 - b) Show America that Japan has healed.
 - c) Give people a place for prayer and remembrance.
 - d) Encourage worldwide prayer on August 6.
- 7) The effects of the atomic bomb were...
 - a) immediate
 - b) gradual
 - c) both immediate and gradual
 - d) minimal

8) In your opinion, what is the significance of the topic?

9) Do you feel dropping the atomic bomb was necessary?
