

Research with Detective Booksy Notes

Research begins with a _____.

- A topic is something you want to _____.
- You will research _____ about a topic.
- A _____ is something you can prove to be true.

First, get your _____ ready.

- A question is also called an _____.
- We ask questions when we want to know more.
- An _____ begins with a question word.

○ Question words:

■ WHO

■ WHERE

■ WHAT

■ WHY

■ WHEN

■ HOW

○ These question words are often called the “_____” and How

● Examples of research questions:

- _____ do honey bees live?
- _____ do honey bees eat?
- _____ do honey bees collect nectar?

Next, choose your _____.

- A source has facts.
 - A _____ is a source.

Research with Detective Booksy Notes

- A _____ is a source.
- An _____ is a source.
- An _____ is a source.
- Make sure that your sources pass the _____ test.
 - _____
 - Who is the author? Is the author an expert?
 - _____
 - Does it have facts that answer your questions?
 - _____
 - Does it have facts that answer your questions?
 - _____
 - Is it correct? Are the facts in the source true?
 - _____
 - Is it new? What is the date the source was published?

To take _____ is to write down important facts in your own words.

- Write down facts as you _____.
- Examples of facts:
 - Honey bees get nectar from flowers.
 - A honey bee's home is called a hive.
- Jot down the _____ of the fact.

Research with Detective Booksy Notes

Next, make a citation.

- A _____ is the information you jot down about a source.
- Example of a citation:
 - Author Last Name, First Name.

Title of Page/Article.

Source Website,

Date Published/Written.

- Finally, _____ your inquiry.
- You will know once you have _____ you questions!