

Name _____ Research

Research Resources

Different kinds of resources provide different kinds of information on a given topic. Depending on what kind of information you are looking for, some resources may be better for you to use than others. Read each scenario below and identify what you think would be the best kind of resource to use to find the information.

1. How many languages are spoken in Africa today?
2. What exactly did Henry Ford invent?
3. What are some other words for important?
4. What does the word machismo mean?
5. What makes a good pet for someone allergic to animal dander?
6. How do you potty-train a puppy?
7. Who was the first woman to run for President in the U.S.?
8. How many books has Michael Crichton written?
9. What's going on politically in the U.S. right now?