

let's learn about FUN MINERAL FACTS

Use the Read the Room information to sort the facts under the different Minerals.
Cut and paste them onto the worksheet.

Used in toothpaste.	The most abundant mineral.	Used in manufacturing ink and paper.
Formed under the sea.	It was used in early compasses.	Bubbles when vinegar is added to it.
Also known as "Fool's Gold."	Natural metal.	Used in cement and medical casts.
The most magnetic mineral.	Made from shellfish remains.	Glowes in UV light.
Found on the Moon.	Used in medicine tablets and concrete.	It is black and shiny.
Used to make pots.	Can be used to start fires.	People can make this mineral in a furnace.
Weak acid can be used to test for this mineral.	Very flexible.	Absorbs heat easily.
Used for sparkles in cosmetics.	Can be carved into sculptures.	Shape returns to original shape.