

Presidential Administration Research Sheet

Use this sheet to collect information for your presidential administration research project. Once you have sufficient facts and information on this sheet, put together a separate final project using the media of your choice.(Poster board, power point, diorama with essay, etc.) Be sure to include all researched information in your project. Find more than what is on this sheet. The more, the better! Finally, present your project. Either live in class or record yourself and submit.
